

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

THE marriage of Miss Margery Knowles, daughter of Mrs. E. H. Knowles, of New York, was quietly celebrated yesterday noon in the home of the bride's mother at 1829 West Grace Street. Dr. Latham was the officiating clergyman, and the Episcopal ritual was used.

Mr. Megargel's brother, Ralph Megargel, of Texas, was best man, and the bride was given in marriage by her brother, J. P. Knowles. She wore a smart, clinging suit of dark blue serge, and her hat was of Panama straw with flat bows of blue velvet ribbon.

Mr. Megargel is a son of Mrs. George Megargel, of New York, and the late J. P. Megargel, and he is a prominent banker of New York City.

Though Miss Knowles has been away from Richmond for several years, having studied abroad for some time, and for the last four years having made her home in New York City, she is always warmly welcomed in Richmond, where socially and professionally she is most pleasantly remembered.

The bride and groom left last night for a wedding tour in the North, and on their return to New York will remain for a while at the Gotham.

Mrs. John M. Dale, of Belmont, Pa., came on to Richmond to attend the wedding.

Dames' Annual Pleasure Trip. The Colonial Dames of Virginia, who on Thursday, May 27, go on a visit to Monticello and the University of Virginia, have their attention called to the additional arrangements made for their comfort on the trip.

Two ventilated coaches for the party will be attached to the regular train leaving Richmond at 8:50 A. M. on Thursday, May 27.

Each lady holding a card, entitling her to a ticket, is asked to retain it until taken up and exchanged for the regular ticket on the car.

The receiving committee of Dames, with badges of blue and yellow, the Colonial colors, will be at the station Thursday morning to give any information requested.

To Meet To-Morrow. There will be a very important called meeting of the Churchill Auxiliary, held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Walker, at 4:30 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. Maggie Anderson, 2305 N. Street.

A full attendance is desired, as there is much important business to be transacted.

Mr. Young at Club. A large assemblage in the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon enjoyed the interesting talk which Ah Fong Young, of Canton, China, made in regard to the habits and customs of the women of his native land.

Mr. Young is a graceful speaker and an accomplished scholar in the history and literature of China, and his remarks showed that he has used his powers of observation in America. He has been in this country for about eight years, being at Fork Union before coming to Richmond, and attending a course in law at either Columbia or Harvard after his graduation here.

Richmond Man to Wed. Richard Thomas Howlett, of Norfolk, has issued an invitation to the marriage of his daughter, Miss Helen McIntyre Howlett, to Emmett Sain Miller, of this city. The marriage will take place Wednesday, June 2, at the bride's home in Norfolk. The bride and groom will make Richmond their home.

To Leave for the South. Mrs. Mollie Macgill Rosenberg, who leaves for the South, after a visit to her mother, at Middleburg, Chesterfield county, Mrs. Clifford Bridges, at Ashland, and other Richmond relatives, will leave for her home in Galveston to-night. She will be accompanied by her niece, Miss Mary Macgill Drawry, of Mineola.

Marriage Announced. The marriage of George A. Lumsden, of this city, and Miss Elsie Gouldin Pitts, of Caroline county, took place at the residence of C. E. Yarbrough on Robinson Street, Tuesday, May 18, at 3:30 P. M., Rev. J. Calvin Stewart officiating.

Virginia Man to Wed. Friends of Friends Garland, of Ivy, Va., will be interested in his approaching marriage to Miss Kathleen Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newman Boyce, which will be celebrated at Gastonia, S. C., on June 2.

Mr. Garland is the eldest son of E. W. Garland, and is well known in Virginia. He is an alumnus of the University of Virginia and a graduate in law. For several years he lived in Charlottesville, and for the last two years has been living in Gastonia.

PARTIAL PARALYSIS

MAY BE ENTIRELY OF A FUNCTIONAL CHARACTER

It is Not Necessary to Accept it as Hopeless, Since There Are Many Well Authenticated Cures.

There is absolutely no way of reaching the nerves with medicine except through the blood. The nerves receive all of their nourishment and support from the blood, which, under healthful conditions, carries the elements needed to rebuild wasted nerve tissue.

Let the blood become changed and deficient in these elements, and the nerves will be badly nourished and headaches, neuritis, sciatica, functional paralysis and a host of other nervous troubles may result.

In severe nervous disorders Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have accomplished many seemingly impossible cures. Such an instance was the cure of Mrs. Eliza, both Stratton, of No. 1126 Dawsey Avenue, Beloit, Wis. Mrs. Stratton has lived at her present address for the past six years, and there is no room for doubt regarding her statement. She says:

"I had been ailing for some time through overwork and worry, when my right side suddenly became partially paralyzed. I could not move for some weeks without taking hold of a chair. My right leg and arm were affected so that I could not use them. My nerves were in a terrible state. I shook all over, and excited by the least little thing. For weeks I could not sleep. My appetite was poor, and I was a nervous wreck."

"I doctored with local physicians at Quincy, Ill., who said I had partial paralysis caused by a nervous shock. I did get a little relief from them, but it was only temporary. Through a friend I was induced to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This was after I had been sick for over a year. I was then up and around, but could not walk. The pills soon helped me, and finally entirely cured me. My daughter also used the pills for a run-down condition of the blood, and they helped her, as well."

While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. They are perfectly safe and create no drug habit. Our booklet, "Nervous Disorders," will be mailed free on request to any address sent for a copy to-day.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

TAFT STOLE POSIES AND NEARLY GOT ARRESTED

Crept at Night Into Agricultural Grounds and Was Robbing Flower Beds When Caught by Watchman, Who Nearly Fainted When He Recognized Prisoner.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—President Taft had gone far back into his boyhood days, plucked a leaf or two out of the "Arabian Nights Tales" and become the Haroun Al Raschid of the present era.

Haroun Al Raschid, it will be remembered, was the ruler who used to disguise himself every night or so and wander around, getting first-hand information as to how his subjects employed their time.

The President tried this last Saturday night, but was forced to disclose his real identity in a hurry in order to avoid arrest by the night watchman of the Department of Agriculture.

The President, accompanied by Captain Archibald Butt, his chief military aid, and a friend, whose identity remains a mystery, was taking a ride in the President's big touring car. Their route took them through the Mall, and when they arrived in the grounds of the Department of Agriculture the President ordered the chauffeur to stop.

Just Couldn't Help It. "These are beautiful flowers, Butt," he said to his chief of staff, pointing to one of the beds in front of the secretary's office, "let's get out and pick a few."

In the fraction of a second the three had deserted the automobile and were, like three small boys, having the time of their lives robbing the flower bed. Each gathered a big bouquet, when all of a sudden the watchman appeared.

The President had just finished his bouquet and was standing a few feet away in the shadow of a tree.

"Where are you doing there?" said the watchman to Captain Butt, who was caught redhanded, with a big bunch of flowers in his hand. "Don't you know you have no business doing that? Don't you know you are breaking the law, stealing government property that way?"

While Captain Butt was gasping for breath and trying to understand the desertion of his chief in the hour of trial, the watchman got a look at the President. Recognizing him, he stopped talking and began wondering what to do next.

Then the President told him they would quit their trespassing right away if he would not arrest them.

"You've done your duty, and I shall tell Secretary Wilson so the first time I see him," said the President. And he did, telephoning the whole story to Mr. Wilson in great glee this morning.

ARRESTED IN BOYDTON. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BOYDTON, VA., May 24.—A white man, calling himself A. J. Cox, was arrested and lodged in jail here yesterday, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. Cox represented himself to be an agent for a Chicago firm, and was taking orders for what ever he needed, and required those ordering to pay a larger part of the money in advance, giving receipt for what ever he needed. One farmer advanced him $20 on a buggy, another $15 for some other article.

The people who dealt with him became suspicious from some remark made by Cox to the effect that he had made his money easy, and they took out a warrant for his arrest.

Cox is a stout man, about forty years of age, dark of complexion and has dark hair. One of his legs is shorter than the other, and he limps slightly in walking.

SIDE WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WILL STICK TO LAW PRACTICE AND LET PRATICE ALONE.

HARRISBURG, VA., May 24.—When asked to-day as to the report sent out from Richmond that the Republican State leaders had settled upon him to make the gubernatorial race, Mr. George N. Sizoo, a well-known lawyer, said: "I am not a candidate for any office or position. I propose to stick to the practice of law."

Mr. Sizoo is one of the leading lawyers of the state. But after four years of office, and each time was elected once to the Legislature, and once as a member of the Town Council. His standing in the valley as a man of ability and integrity and his business ability is such that should he be induced to run, it would mean a greatly increased Republican vote in this section of the State.

Counterfeits.

Read what one of the GREATEST NEWSPAPERS IN AMERICA has to say on this subject:

"The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trademark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents, and mothers in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Conger Bros. of St. Paul, Minn., say: "Fletcher's Castoria is certainly full of merit and worthy of recommendation."

C. G. A. Loder, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "For 20 years we have sold Fletcher's Castoria and are pleased to state that it has given universal satisfaction."

The Scholtz Drug Co., of Denver, Colo., says: "Fletcher's Castoria has surely become a household word. Seemingly every family where there are children uses it."

Hoagland & Mansfield, of Boston, Mass., say: "We have nothing but good to say about your Castoria and we do not hesitate to give it our unqualified endorsement."

Riker's Drug Stores, of New York City, say: "Fletcher's Castoria is one of the oldest and most popular preparations in our stores. We have nothing but good to say about it."

Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "Of the thousands of patent medicines for which we have demand there are a very few of them that we can conscientiously recommend and your Castoria is included in this few."

D. R. Dyche & Co., of Chicago, Ill., say: "The increasing demand for your Castoria shows that a discriminating public is not slow to seek out a remedy of merit and once convinced that it does all and even more than claimed they do not hesitate to recommend it to their friends."

The Owl Drug Co., of San Francisco, Cal., says: "We have always been a believer in the 'original man protection' and have been particular never to sell anything but the genuine and original Castoria (Fletcher's). We have many calls every day for this article from people who say they would not be without it in their homes."

BURIED ALIVE IN SAND DUNE

Well-Known Young Norfolk Man Loses Life at Cape Henry.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., May 24.—Buried beneath a cave-in of a sand dune at Cape Henry, between the Lynnhaven and Granite Stations, on the Norfolk and Southern, Richardson P. Smithwick, a young man, well known in the city, lost his life some time on Saturday evening. He was found yesterday morning by searching parties, but life had been extinct for hours.

Smithwick went down to the sand dunes separating the desert from the beach in this section on Saturday afternoon. When he failed to return a party instituted search. Yesterday morning they were about to give up the quest when they found feet protruding from a cave-in of one of the dunes, and on digging the body out discovered it to be that of their friend.

It is thought that Smithwick was digging for a kingfisher's nest when the dune went in with him. He was thrown headfirst beneath the cave-in, and hence, was in a position where he was unable to help himself. Everything on the body was found intact.

The young man survived by his widow and little child, residing at 308 Malby Avenue. Smithwick was in the insurance business, was of exemplary habits, and was a member of the Cumberland Street Methodist Church.
